

New Members of the Research Family? Neurosciences and their Presence in Criminological Debates

09.30-10.00 Welcome and Introduction (Peter Becker, Gerhard Haupt, Wilhelm Heitmeyer)

PART 1: TRANSDISCIPLINARY ALLIANCES

10.00-11.15 Sabine Maasen, University Basel
Social Neuro Sciences and Neuro Social Sciences: Strange Alliances?

Coffee Break

11.30-12.45 Helmut Thome, University of Halle
Do criminologists need to include neuro-biological factors in their explanatory models? Some methodological considerations

13.00-14.00 Lunch at Restaurant Keintzel (Rathausgasse 6)

PART 2: CROSSING BOUNDARIES

14.15-15.30 Nicole Rafter, Northeastern University, Boston
Neurosciences and the New Criminology

Coffee Break

15.45-17.00 Peter Becker, University of Linz
Rodents and Men: How to enlist laboratory research for criminal policy

Coffee Break

17.15-18.30 Peter Strasser, University of Graz
Brains and Would-be Brains. Outlines of a Neurocriminology

19.00 Dinner at a Restaurant in Linz